

REPORT

OF THE

EDINBURGH CONFERENCE,

(From Jan. 6th, 1850, to June 8th and 9th, 1850),

HELD IN

WHITEFIELD CHAPEL, HIGH STREET.

President, C. DUNN. Clerk, G. P. WAUGH.

SUNDAY, JUNE 9th, 1850. Conference assembled at 11 o'clock, A. M., in Whitefield Chapel, foot of Carrubber's Close, High Street, according to previous notice. Elder H. Findlay called the meeting to order, and moved that Elder C. Dunn preside; seconded by Elder Geo. P. Waugh, and carried unanimously; and that Father Waugh, Clerk of Conference, minute the proceedings of the meeting.

Thereafter President Dunn gave out the hymn on the first page, which being sung, Elder Joseph Clements, President of the Glasgow Conference, engaged in prayer. The saints then sang the hymn, "Earth with her Ten Thousand Flowers," &c., when President arose and said, "I feel happy to meet with so many of the saints and brethren in the ministry in the capacity of a Conference, for to counsel together and arrange things adapted to the welfare and prosperity of the great work of God, which we as a people are engaged in, according to the wisdom imparted unto us, requesting an interest in the prayers of the saints convened, that we might be led by the Spirit of truth to counsel and instruct in righteousness in those things which tend to promote their peace and happiness here and hereafter." He then introduced his American brother above noted, who in the course of the day would address us on principles of eternal truth, as revealed for edification and comfort.

The officers present were I. H. P. 1.70, 27 E., 13 Pts., 10 Teachers, and 4 Deacons.

Before proceeding further, the President said, "I wish to make a few remarks, in order that we may do things unitedly. The various resolutions will be put in due form, as adopted in the Council last evening for your approval or disapproval; therefore remember, when you sanction by your uplifted hands the authorities of the Church, you thereby covenant to uphold and sustain them by your faith and works; because, when we adopt measures for promoting the work of God, we are under obligation to carry such measures into effect. Therefore, let us be decided in our movements, and endeavour to be guided by the unerring Spirit of God, which is the privilege of his adopted children. And my prayer is that his Spirit may predominate in our midst this day and for ever."

The President then said—We wish to establish an Emigrating Fund in this Conference, according to Pres. Richard's instructions (see vol. xii. of the Star, p. 137), which we wish to be carried into effect in all the branches; therefore I move that each branch appoint an agent to receive donations for that purpose, with the full name and amount of the donor, and send the same to the general agent once a month. Seconded by G. P. Waugh and carried unanimously.

The President of the branches within the Fifeshire district, under the direction of Travelling Elder W. A. Macmaster, are requested to pay over to him their portion of the said Contingent Fund. The Presidents of the branches also within Travelling Elder A. S. Adamson's district, will pay their portion of said Contingent Fund to him.

the branches which have subscribed to take four times their usual quota of Stars, commencing with No. 13 of the current volume, and failing to do so, shall pay 2½d. for one, in place of three copies for 3d.

Moved by Bro. H. Findlay and seconded by Bro. D. O. Calder—That the Minutes of this Conference be printed upon eight pages, Star size, for the benefit of those Saints who may desire to purchase them and to become acquainted with the condition and financial affairs of the Conference.

The President then called upon the Clerk to rehearse the branch representations given in the Council last evening, as inserted in the seventh page. Thereafter, he called upon Elder Clements of Glasgow to address the meeting, who expressed himself happy to have met with the Saints in this place, and felt highly gratified with the morning proceedings, and said, from the union which prevailed, it was a manifestation to him that the Spirit of the Lord was amongst us; and that, although a stranger in the flesh, yet not in the spirit, having all been baptized into one body, and made to drink into the one spirit; which oneness he ever found amongst the Saints wherever he met with them in Great Britain or America. He felt to rejoice with us in the ministration of the angel to our martyred prophet Joseph, in the restoration of the fulness of the everlasting gospel, in the gathering of the honest in heart, in the building up of Zion on the mountains of Ephraim, in the second coming of Jesus, our great Redeemer, and the glorious hope of the resurrection from among the dead, to be clothed upon with immortality and eternal life. “Therefore, brethren, be faithful, watchful, and prayerful; likewise obey the counsel of your President, and the Lord will bless you. Amen.”

The President then said he had enjoyed himself well during the meeting, and felt much pleased with the remarks of Eld. Clements, and prayed that the Holy Ghost might be with him and all the elders of Israel; that they might be enabled thereby to build up the kingdom of God, and gather the honest in heart out of all nations unto Zion.

The Conference then adjourned till

A QUARTER PAST TWO, P. M.

Conference met pursuant to adjournment, and was opened by singing and prayer, when the President addressed the Saints and said,—“I feel truly thankful to our Father in heaven for every gift and blessing he has bestowed upon us in past life, but more especially for the gifts of the Holy Ghost, flowing from obedience to the Gospel, restored upon its primitive basis of apostles and prophets, from whence we obtained knowledge of things past, present, and to come; which we never could have attained unto, had not the God of Abraham, Isaac, Jacob, and Joseph fulfilled his promise to restore to his church and kingdom her judges as at the first and her counsellors as at the beginning, previous to her becoming the city of righteousness, the faithful city. For the prophet saith, ‘Behold, I will bring it health and cure, and I will cure them, and will REVEAL unto them the abundance of peace and truth. And it shall be to me a Name of joy, praise, and honour before all the nations of the earth, which shall hear all the good that I do unto them: and they shall fear and tremble for all the goodness and for all the prosperity that I procure unto it, saith the Lord.’ ‘For, when He shall build up Zion, he shall appear in his glory (Ps. cii. 13), and the redeemed of the Lord shall return and come with singing unto Zion, and everlasting joy shall be upon their head. They shall obtain gladness and joy, and sorrow and mourning shall flee away. For the Lord shall comfort Zion. He will comfort ALL her waste places! And HE will make her wilderness like Eden, and her desert like the garden of the Lord; joy and gladness shall be found therein, thanksgiving and the voice of melody. For the Lord hath chosen Zion, he hath desired it for his habitation. This is my rest for ever; here will I dwell, for I have desired it. I will also clothe her priests with salvation and her saints shall shout aloud for joy.' This was written for the generation to come, as saith the Psalmist. Hence we learn that the Lord would give revelation when he builds up Zion; and we assuredly know that the Lord, by his angels, hath spoken from the heavens, in this our day and generation, unto his chosen servants; and has sent Elijah the Prophet, to turn the hearts of the fathers to their children, and the hearts of the children to their fathers, lest (as saith the Lord) I come and smite the earth with a curse! For as saith Paul, 'Though Abraham, Isaac, Jacob, and all the saints who had obtained a good report through faith, received not the promise, God having provided some better thing for us, that they without us should not be made perfect.' Now, How was Abraham justified before God when he was commanded to offer up his son Isaac? Was it not by his works of obedience that his faith was made perfect? It will be replied, Yes. Well then, How can we become perfect, although we have been baptized for the remission of our sins, unless we also obey the commandments revealed unto us? Or, How could we become perfect in the first resurrection, without obedience to what the Lord has revealed for us, to perform relative to our ancestors and friends who died before this latter-day dispensation of the gospel was ushered from the heavens into the world? For if Abraham and Isaac, &c. could not become perfect without the apostles, neither could the apostles nor saints of the former day dispensation become perfect without us. For instance, How could we enjoy perfect happiness in the first resurrection, or any one else, knowing at the same time that our fathers, mothers, wives, and children were doomed to suffer eternal punishment, without the least hope of their redemption from prison, as is taught at the present day, termed the meridian of gospel splendour and glory! Though many there are who deem this a very wholesome doctrine and very full of comfort, we have not so learned Christ; for, 'Though he were a Son, yet learned he obedience by the things which he suffered; and being made perfect, he became the Author of eternal salvation unto all those that obey him.' 'Being put to death in the flesh, but quickened by the Spirit, by which (Spirit) also he went and preached unto the spirits in prison, which some time were disobedient, when once the long-suffering of God waited in the days of Noah, while the Ark was a preparing, wherein few, that is, eight souls were saved by water. For, for this cause was the gospel preached also to them that are dead, that they might be judged according to men in the flesh, but live according to God in the spirit. Else what shall they do which are baptized for the dead, if so be the dead rise not at all? Why are they then baptized for the dead? For He hath sent me (Christ) to bring out the prisoners from the prison, and them that sit in darkness out of the prison-house. Also, to bind up the broken-hearted, to proclaim liberty to the captives, and the opening of the prison to them that are bound; to proclaim the acceptable year of the Lord; to comfort all that mourn. Because it was revealed in mine ears by the Lord of Hosts. Surely this iniquity shall not be purged from you till ye die, saith the Lord of Hosts. As for thee also, by the BLOOD OF THY COVENANT, I have sent forth the prisoners out of the pit, wherein is no water!' Now, we believe this to be a very wholesome doctrine and very full of comfort for you to know, that in as much as we continue faithful in all things revealed unto us respecting our departed ancestors, we shall become saviours unto them on Mount Zion when the kingdom shall be the Lord's. For it is written, 'That when the dead, small and great, stand before God, and the Books are opened, and another Book was opened, which is the Book of Life, and the dead were judged out of those things which were written in the Books, according to their works.' "

President Dunn then requested of the Branch Presidents, when they bring in their reports at Conference meetings, of those baptized, cut off, or died during the quarter, to hand in full particulars; and any women that are married when they enter the church, state her proper name: if her name is Janet (or any other name), say Mrs. Janet so and so, and not give her her husband's first name; and those that are cut off, or die, if they have not been baptized into their branch, let it be stated what branch they came from originally (that is, where they were baptized), so that the branch record in the Conference book may be turned up, and these items entered opposite their names. And females who enter the church unmarried, if they get married after they enter the church, and are afterwards cut off or die, let it be stated in the President's reports, their name, when they were baptized, also her husband's name, so that their names may be easily found on the record. The same will apply to any who emigrate, or leave the Conference; and when the priesthood is taken from any officer, let it be also stated in the President's report the name and date when the office was taken from him; these items are to be mentioned particularly, so that a complete record may be kept. If these things are not attended to, many mistakes may occur, for out of the books we are to be judged. There is great utility, in keeping a record, to keep a strict account of all things in connection with the ministry, and it would be well for all heads of families to keep a private journal, and a record of their relations who have passed off this stage of action; and let it be remembered, in respect to the resurrection, it will just be according to the things written in the books that we will be judged. There is an order in these things that will be necessary for us to attend to; and if these things are not written in the books, it will be a long time before we make up what we may lose in the time we are searching for them. The ideas of getting saved, in the kingdom of God, among the Christian world, are that they are just to pass into heaven without any particular plan, if they only pray to the Lord to receive their soul; but it is not so in the kingdom of God. There is a particular plan of the great Jehovah laid down, and it will be necessary for us to attend to it strictly. Perfect order must be attended to, and he hopes they will gather up all things—particularly those that are heads of families—an account of all they can get of their genealogy, whom they have sprung from, with an account of their forefathers, births, deaths, and where buried; and he hoped the Saints will be diligent as far as it is in their power, not only in recording baptisms and ordinations, for all these things will be necessary. By attending to order in the kingdom of God, we will finally renovate the earth, and bring to pass all things spoken of by the prophets of God. The reason mankind has not done it is, because they have transgressed the laws and broken the everlasting covenant. They would not observe the order of God, but have adopted a plan to please themselves; so he withdrew his spirit from the children of men, and they are now far removed from the Almighty.

The President thereafter gave the annexed instructions to the officers and saints present, respecting their future proceedings, viz.

“ Let those who may be called to office be ordained in their respective branches, as directed in the Book of Covenants, sect. 2, par. 16. I wish no one to be called and ordained in any branch of this Conference, so long as I preside, without my concurrence; and I hope and trust that every officer and saint will attend to counsel, and use every effort to roll forth the great work of God. Ye officers, see that you do not tarnish the holy priesthood that you have received. Remember your high and holy calling, and abstain from every appearance of evil. Let us be united heart and hand in the glorious work of the Lord in which we are engaged, and it will roll on, and no power can hinder. But should we become divided like Babylon, we shall no longer be Christ's. Therefore, let us be governed by the Spirit of God, and all will be well. Preach nothing to this generation but the first principles of the Gospel; and when they have obeyed them and wish to know more, tell them to go to Zion. If they ask, Where is Zion? tell them, in America. And if they ask, What is Zion? tell them, the pure in heart.” Adjourned till

A QUARTER PAST SIX, P. M.

The Meeting opened in the usual way, when Elder Clements addressed the audience on the resurrection of the dead, to the edification and comfort of all present; bore strong testimony to the Cause, in which the saints concur; exhorted them to obey the counsel given them during the day by their President, and the blessings of God would attend them.

The Conference then adjourned till the 7th and 8th of September next, with the concluding benediction from the President.
